Obsequies of Mr. Peabody. LONDON, November 12.

The obsequies of George Peabody took place this afternoon. The procession was formed at the mansion of Sir Curtis Lampson. It consisted of a hearse and five mourning coaches. Following the procession were carriages of the Queen, the Prince of Wales, Sir Curtis Lampson, the Lord Mayor and Aldermen of London, the High Sheriffs of London and of the Countles of Middlesex and Surrey, the Duchess of Somerset, the Marquis of Townshend, Lady Franklin, Miss Burdett Coutts and many others.

The funeral cortege passed slowly through the streets, which were lined with crowds of silent spectators, to Westminster Abbey. The venerable cture had been completely filled with people. who had been admitted by tickets, and were al dressed in mourning. The choir was hung with black and the sombre aspect of the interior wa only relieved by the robes of the Lord Mayor and Standing near the sacrarium, as the body was brought in, were Mr. Gladstone, Lord Clarendon, the Dean of St. Paul's, Rev. Thomas Binney, a dissenting minister; Dr. Day and John Bright,

A flood of sunshine poured through the windows at the moment the procession envered the building. The coffin, which was placed on a er at the end of the choir, was plain and unornamented, covered with black. On the lid was a breastplate, with an inscription giving simply the name of deceased, place and date of birth, and death. The Lesson was read by the Archdeacon of Westminster As soon as the cere nony within the church was over, the procession formed again and advanced to a spot near the western entrance, where a temporary grave had been prepared, and an excavation two to three feet deep made, the sides of which were lined with black

Here the body was deposited, and will remain until taken to America. Lord John Thinne read the remainder of the burial service at the head of the grave. On the right stood the mourners, including the United States Minister, and on the left were General Grey, Mr. Gladstone, Lord Clarendon, the Lord Mayor, High Sheriffs, and the clergy of Westminister and St. Paul's.

After the coffin had been lowered into the grave, a floral cross was placed on it. This act was witnessed in profound silence, and served to increase the emotion which pervaded the congregation. The people then passed around the coffin, and took a last look at the features of the

THE STATE FAIR.

LIST OF PREMIUMS.

Horsemanship-Accident to Mr. Guignard-The Last Meeting-Appointment of Delegates-Resolutions of Thanks-Awarding of Silver Cups, &c.

[FROM OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.]

COLUMBIA, November 13. Yesterday, at five o'clock, as the readers of THE NEWS have been informed by telegraph, the sixth annual Fair of the South Carolina Agricultural and Mechanical Society was closed. Its suc ess gives good reason to hope that it will give a fresh impulse to the agricultural interests of the State, and open the way for a large increase of wealth and population.

On yesterday the crowd was much larger than on either of the previous days, and the proceedings by far more interesting.

Premiums Awarded. At 1 o'clock the Executive Committee proceeded to the stand, and General Johnson Hagood, president of the society, announced the names of those who received premiums and the premium. The delivery of the premiums occupied about two hours and a half. The premiums consisted of gold and silver medals, silver cups, money, &c. A cooper received a wooden pail with hoops of silver as his premium for the best made wooden ware. The following is a complete List of Premiums.

MACHINERY.

Committee-B. F. Evans, George W. Morse, B. C. Jones, John McRae.
The Committee on Machinery made the following report:
Mendenhall self-acting hand loom, exhibited by Messrs. Shields & Glaze, of Columbia. It is well made, easy to work, not liable to get out of order, and operates well. "Eureka" smut machine, J. D. Dreher, Colum and operaces well.

"Eureka" smut machine, J. D. Dreher, Columbia, S. C. Your committee did not see this machine in operation, but it seems to be well built, and worthy of the attentions of planters.

Patent saw sharpener, exhibited by Messrs. Shields & Glaze, Columbia, S. C. An excellent machine, and deserving of the attention of all who are using circular saws or other saw mills. Sewing machine, exhibited by J. E. Adger & Co., Charleston, S. C.; also, Dur of the Willcox & Gibbs and Weed Sewing Machines. All these machines are most useful; the one exhibited by Messrs. Adger & Co. cheap and within the reach of all, and the Willcox & Gibbs machine is too well known to require our endorsement.

Hinckley's anitting machine, exhibited by J. W. Tims, Abbeville, S. C., is a most valuable family lator-saving machine, knitting stockings, undershirts, drawers, and many other articles, and is sold for $30.

Submerged pump, by Messrs. Jennings, Thomlinson & Co., Charleston, S. C.; also, one by Mr. Richard Tozer, of Columbia; also, one lift and force "Monitor House Pump," by Mr. A. Y. Lee, of Columbia, who is agent for W. S. Carr & Co., of New York. These pumps have each their point of value, and are all worthy of the attention of the planters, who could save much labor and time y a good pump for the clumsy arrangements of the present wells.

by a good pump for the clumsy arrangements of the present wells.

Mr. C. T. Mason, of Sumter, S. C., exhibits an electric fan for kerosene lamps, which is an ingenious application of electricity to increase combustion. He also exhibits an electric alarm, which is an equally ingenious application of electricity, for the detection of burglars.

Master C. T. Mason, of Sumter, exhibits a miniature steam engine, which is very creditable to him, and your committee advise, that though there is no premium offered for such articles, some award should be made to Master Mason, and in future a premium be offered for the best piece of mechanism constructed entirely by a boy under eighteen years of age. (A silver medal was presented to Master Mason.)

Portable steam engine, manufactured and exhibited by Mr. Richard Tozer, of Columbia. To this machine, which is well built and creditable to the builder, your committee award the premium of a gold medal.

SOUTHERN MANUFACTURES. Committee-James G. Gibbes, F. M. Rogers, J. S. Meng, R. Murdock. The Committee on Southern Manufactures re-ort that the articles on exhibition in their deport that the articles on exhibition in their department, though not extensive, was very superior, and found it dimcult to discriminate, especially in yarns, exhibited by Childs, Johnson & Co., (Saiuda,) George W. Williams & Co., (Batesville), and D. E. Convers, (Bivingsville)

The committee awarded a medal to Messrs. Childs, Johnson & Palmer, of Saluda, for the best bale of cotton yarn. The committee also called especial attention to the handsome cotton warps spun by the Saluda Factory. The following are their awards:

The Committee on Chemicals, Olis and Fertilizers, after a careful examination of the specimens of fertilizers on exhibition, with their analyses, report that they are unable to make any just discrimination between them. The varieties submitted for their inspection are all entitled to high commendation, and worthy of the confidence of planters, by whom alone the question of their comparative value must be determined. The zeal and energy displayed by the contributors of these specimens, for the promotion of the agricultural interests of our State, entitle them to praise.

The committee would urge upon the manufac turers and dealers in fertilizers the necessity for maintaining the high standard of excellence which the specimens before them exhibit. The committee award to Mrs. George Douglas, tioned.

In conclusion, the committee would recommend that better arrangements for the exhibition of works of art be made before the time for the next Fair; and express the hope that a fuller and more general contribution will then be made.

After the delivery of the premiums there were a number of impromptu races, after which there was an interesting and exciting display of horsemanship on the part of a body of citizen riders, under the command of Colonel Haskell. McDuf fie Hampton, a son of General Wade Hampton, oout eleven years old, attracted admiration for his bold horsemanship, and received a silver cup for good riding. A silver cup was also awarded to John Taylor, of Columbia, and one to W. D.

On motion, Colonel D. Wyatt Aiken, the secre tary and treasurer, was requested to visit the Macon, Georgia, Fair, and it was ordered that his expenses be paid by the society.

Mr. Henerey, of Charleston, moved that the who desired to back the Executive Committee in their efforts to advance the interests of the socie ty and the next annual Fair, should announce th sums they desired to contribute, whereupon, amid much enthusiasm, eight thousand dollar were subscribed in a few minutes, in sums ranging from one hundred dollars to five hundred do

On motion of Major Woodward, of Fairfield, i was resolved and unanimously carried, "that the thanks of the society are due and hereby tendered to the City of Columbia, for its liberal contribu tion to the industrial interests of the State, in the investment of $8000 for the benefit of the so ciety."

Resolutions of thanks to Captain A. Y. Lee, for his services in the hall; to the officers of the soclety, and to General Bumford for the services of the post band, were adopted.

The Rural Carolinian was commended to the members of the society. General Hagood, the president, replied in ap propriate terms to the resolution of thanks ex tended to himself and the other officers.

The society then adjourned until next year. Five sixths of the visitors have departed, and Columbia now presents anything else but a lively appearance.

FROM THE STATE CAPITAL.

The Fair-Results, Material and Moral Figures-Personal Notabilities-Other Items.

[FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.] COLUMBIA, November 13. The State Agricultural and Mechanical Fair

s over, and well over. In its material results, this Fair is important. In all the departments of productive industry, a stimulus has been given that has only just begun to produce results-although the results thus far are in themselves highly creditable to all parties

An enumeration of the articles presented, after the full lists already published in THE NEWS, would be unnecessary; but a few figures, as examples, may be given to indicate the scale of the affair. Of horses and mules there were 69 en tered: of cattle 42 head; of swine, 16; of goats, 8 sheep, 7, and of poultry about 100.

Other departments were represented in some what the same ratio; and these figures may serve to compare the Fair with others in other places. There were some things in themselves significant of progress. A new bee-gum, or palace, was entered by Dr. Turnipseed, of Richland County. This has been registered in Washington for a patent. The novelty consist in an arrangement to prevent worms. A South Carolina made clock was on exhibition by R. Brandt, of Chester. W. G. Embleton, of Columbia, exhibited specimens of his own engraving. C. T. Mason, of Sumter, entered an electric fan for kerosene lamps. Mrs. M. A. Holmes, of Columbia, entered a specimer of okra hemp. Major M. R. Clarke, of Richland, a model of movable fence. Mrs. E. Finley, of Rich land, some Irish potato starch. There was on exhibition a photograph picture taken by a new process discovered by Mr. Richard, of Columbia. R. C. Shiver, of this city, exhibited specimens of the ramie fabric, both unspun and in cloth. Of this ramie, Colonel Joel Foster, of Spartanburg, says he can make more money with it at three cents a pound, than he can with cotton at twenty; and that the price of ramie is ten cents. That is to say, he can make more than three times as much by raising ramie as he can by raising cotton. Ramie is a good deal like flax, in the mode of pre paring it. M. R. Clarke (already once mentioned had at the Fair a specimen of manufactured honey, which he claims he can manufacture a ten cents a pound, while real bee-made honey sells at near twenty. These are but specimens; but they indicate a day of endeavor and of new pursuits.

prizes-the largest number taken by one manmostly for stock. C. J. Stolbrand, of the State Penitentiary, took a prize for the best brooms.

The Ursuline Convent of Valla Crucis-a Catholic Female Institute, near Columbia-took a priz for a specimen of feather work. In its moral results the Fair has been an abund ant success. Reconstruction of the most vitally important kind has been effected. South Carolina has met again-the first time since the war-and out of these three days of intercourse have grown new hopes, new resolves, new plans, and new im petus; and a definite idea has grown up in the inds and hearts of our people that has no equal in their history since the war. This Fair has made history for our State. The era is auspicious and the future will mark and remember it. Among the men of distinction present at this gathering of our people, were General Wade Hampton, whom South Carolina delights to honor; General R. H. Anderson, whose war record is ful of honor; Generals John Bratton, Johnson Hagood, John S. Preston, M. C. Butler, E. P. Alexander, and John D. Kennedy; ex-Governor M. L. Bonham, whose service won both civic and mili tary honors; Dr. E. B. Turnipseed, who received the honor of knighthood-Order of St. Catherinefrom the Czar of Russia for his professional ser vices in the Crimean war; Professor George W Morse, of Greenville, a relative of Dr. Morse, of telegraph fame; T. G. Clemson, the champion of professional education for farmers; General Bumford, commandant of the post at Columbia. The merchants of Charleston were represented by Mr. W. G. Whilden, of Whilden & Co.; Colonel

B. F. Evans, of Walker, Evans & Cogswell, and Mr. W. S. Henerey. The least successful feature of the Fair was the extemporized equestrian exercises, which con sumed several hours of the afternoon of the las day. These were protracted by preliminary evo lutions that well-nigh exhausted the patience of a very indulgent and large concourse of people. The riding was good in general; but the feats under taken were evidently beyond the skill of the horse entered. They knocked down the bars ten times as often as they cleared them. After all it was not very easy to see what it was all about-what agricultural end was subserved by these ex

The crowd became larger from first to last each day improving on the preceding. The figures were, as well as one could determine from a general calculation, about these: First day, 2500; second day, 3500, and third day, 5000.

The Board of Trustees of the State University have requested Professor Rivers to continue in the chair of Ancient Languages "for som months" longer. It is understood that he wil consent to stay until the first of January. His re-election would give general satisfaction. Mr. Pelham again announces his intention to resume the publication of his Southern Gurdian, which, it will be remembered, was suspended by Sherman in 1665. It is to be a daily, and enters the field as the rival of the Phœnix. He has issued and circulates subscription lists. It is rumored that he intends to bring it out early in the session of the Legislature. Another escape from General Stolbrand's pen i tentiary-another recruit to the Grand Army of the Republic, it is said. —A San Francisco paper describes the music in a Chinese theatre of that city as follows: "Im-agine yourself in a boiler manufactory when four hundred men are putting in rivets, a mammoth tin-shop next door on one side, and a forty-stamp tin-shop next door on one side, and a forty-stamp quartz mill on the other, with a drunken chari-vari party with six hundred instruments in front, and four thousand enraged cats on the roof, and a faint idea will be conveyed of the performance of a first-class Chinese band of music."

novi5 1 S. THOMAS, City Treasurer. 28 IMPAIRED DIGESTION. - A L L the organs of the body are, so to speak, the pensioners of the stomach. In that living laboratory is prepared the nourishment required to sustain with the digestive apparatus, that nourishment is conveyed to every part of the system. Upon the quality and quantity of this element of life, and upon the manner in which it is distributed and apportioned, physical health mainly depends, and as the mind inevitably sympathizes with the body, the vigor of the one is absolutely necessary to the well-being of the other. It is because HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BIT-TERS accomplishes this double obl joys a reputation as a preventive and curative never heretofore attained by any medicinal preparation. But its direct beneficial operation up the weak or disordered stomach is not its sole recommendation. It is the most comprehensive of all known remedies. It tones, strengthens and regulates the discharging as well as the assimilating organs; gently moving the bowels, promoting healthful evaporation through the pores, rousing the inert liver from its torpor, and inducing harmonious and natural action in the whole animal machinery. This benign result is not produced by any of the reactionary drugs which are used so lavishly in the old school practice, founded by Paracelsus; but by mild, safe and agreeable vegetable agents intermixed with a pure and me low stimulant which diffuses their influence through the system and renders their sanitary properties active and effective. nov15 60&c ESTATE E. CHAPMAN.—ON AND after MONDAY, the 14th instant, the Executors of the Estate of E. CHAPMAN, deceased, will pay the final dividend on said Estate, at the Office of
